

New Caledonia's College du Tieta visit MSG Secretariat

The Director General, Mr Peter Forau and staff of the Melanesian Spearhead Group (MSG) Secretariat welcomed a group of students from College du Tieta in Voh, Northern Province of New Caledonia on Thursday 29 September in Port Vila, Vanuatu.

The 26 students who are currently on an exchange program and visiting Vanuatu's capital, Port Vila were able to visit the MSG Secretariat headquarters and learn about the organization.

In a brief ceremony to welcome the students, DG Forau said that the Secretariat was honored and saw it as being an opportunity for the students to improve their skills in English and also to learn more about the Melanesian Spearhead Group, its members and the role of the MSG Secretariat.

The MSG Secretariat made presentations on the vision and mission of the MSG. The students were also given other information about the role and purpose of the Melanesian Spearhead Group.
