17 August 2018

The Director General Amena Yauvoli received a courtesy call from the Hon. Peter Shanel Agovaka MP, Minister for Communication and Aviation at the MSG Secretariat on Thursday 16th of August 2018.

The courtesy call was warmly welcomed and provided the opportunity for the Director General to hear from Minister Agovaka and highlighted some of the important strategic reforms that the MSG secretariat is going through and the implementation of the MSG Secretariat's 2018 Work Programme Implementation with its on-going challenges.

The Director General also conveyed his profound gratitude to the hospitality rendered by the Solomon Islands during the 6th Macfest in Honiara in which had spent a total of 3 weeks in Honiara, ensuring success of the Macfest Festival.

In response, Hon Agovaka thanked the Director General for his leadership and encouraged the MSG Secretariat to continue and set positive agendas on issues of mutual benefits to all MSG member countries and the need to protect Melanesia's rich cultures and traditional knowledge.
